

Y11 – Y12 Bridging work 2021

Welcome to A-Level German! Please complete the tasks below over the next 2 weeks to brush up on your grammar before we start the course. You should spend 5 hours on this over a two-week period. If you have not finished after 5 hours, please do not worry!

1.) The Present Tense

Please go on languages online languages online Read the section 'Formation of the Present Tense – an Explanation' and make a fact sheet that you can refer to next year in our lessons. There are gap fill activities on the website that you can complete. Should you wish to complete a worksheet then please complete the worksheets 'Verbs in the present tense' and 'Present Tense 2'

2.) Haben and Sein

These are two of the most important verbs in the German language. They are used, not only in the present tense but also to form the perfect tense. Complete the sheet called 'haben and sein'

3.) The Perfect tense

Please go on languages online languages online and look at the explanation of the perfect tense. Make a fact sheet that you can refer to in our lessons next year. Work your way through the exercises on the website. Should you wish to complete a worksheet then please complete 'Perfect tense regular' Perfect tense irregular' and 'Perfect tense with sein' and even 'Revising the Perfect tense'

4.) Imperfect tense

Please work your way through the imperfect worksheets. Unfortunately, there aren't any online exercises for this one!

5.) The Future Tense

Please go on languages online languages online and read the explanation section. Explanation' and make a fact sheet that you can refer to next year in our lessons. There are gap fill activities on the website that you can complete. Should you wish to complete a worksheet then please complete the worksheets 'using the future tense' and 'revising the future tense'