

Angry about a snake

by Denh

Read the story with your friend.

When I was a little girl in Vietnam, we had some chickens. They lived in a chicken house.

One day I saw a snake. It went into the chicken house.

It ate the eggs and it ate the little chicks.

I called my dad. He was angry. He was very angry.

He got a big stick and he went into the chicken house.

The snake came out of the chicken house. My dad ran quickly. He saw the snake. He killed the snake with the big stick.

Ask your friend some questions:

1. Did the chickens live in the dog house?
2. Did Denh see a dog?
3. Did she see a snake?
4. Did the snake go into Denh's house?
5. Did the snake eat the big chickens?
6. Did it eat the eggs?
7. Did Denh call her dad?
8. Did she call her mum?
9. Did her dad get a small stick?
10. Did her dad kill the snake?

Yes they did.
Yes she did.
Yes he did.

No they didn't.
No she didn't.
No he didn't.

Now write the questions and the answers.

Can you write a story about a snake?
Can you write a story about being angry?

Cut out these story strips and work with your friend to put them in the right order:
