

Facts about Sikhi		The langar
Founder:	Guru Nanak	Free kitchen found at every gurdwara.
When founded:	1499 in Punjab, India	Shows how important equality is to Sikhs: - Everybody (even non-Sikhs) are welcome - Sikhs take turn to provide the food and cook (and do the washing up!) - Everybody sits on the floor to show nobody is more important than anybody else
Holy book:	The Guru Granth Sahib
Place of worship:	Gurdwara
Holy place:	The Golden Temple in Amritsar
Beliefs about God:	Monotheistic; only 1 God		The 5 Ks		Reincarnation
Key beliefs:	Everybody is equal		Kesh	Uncut hair	When you die your soul is born into a new body.
The Guru Granth Sahib			Kara	Bangle	The life your soul has depends on the karma from your previous lives.
Contains everything the 10 human gurus taught Sikhs			Kirpan	Knife
Treated like a emperor to show how important it is: - Always higher up than the worshippers - Covered with a cloth when not being read - Kept in a rest room when not being used			Kangha	Comb	Reincarnation happens many times, until God has helped you to become so good you don't need to be reborn.
		Kacchera	Cotton shorts
The Golden Temple		Sikhi	The 10 Gurus
In Amritsar, northern India  Contains one of the oldest copies of the Guru Granth Sahib Built to show everybody is equal: 4 doors show everybody is welcome - Largest langar kitchen and hall in the world		1. Guru Nanak		Started Sikhi and taught his followers that equality was important
		2. Guru Amar Das		Made every visitor eat in the langar to show them how important equality is
Key concepts		3. Guru Angad		Wrote down Guru Nanak's hymns
		4. Guru Ram Das		Started to build Amritsar; the Sikh city
Equality		5. Guru Arjan		Put all of the previous gurus teachings into a holy book
Karma		6. Guru Hargobind		Encouraged Sikhs to learn how to defend themselves
Khalsa		7. Guru Har Rai		Worked with the government to try and protect Sikhs
Pilgrimage		8. Guru Har Krishnan		Helped ill people but became ill himself and died aged 8
Reincarnation		9. Guru Tegh Badhr		Refused to become a Muslim and died to help Hindus
		10. Guru Gobind Singh		Set up the khalsa

Facts about Sikhi		The langar
Founder:	Guru Nanak	Free kitchen found at every gurdwara.
When founded:	1499 in Punjab, India	Shows how important equality is to Sikhs: - Everybody (even non-Sikhs) are welcome - Sikhs take turn to provide the food and cook (and do the washing up!) - Everybody sits on the floor to show nobody is more important than anybody else
Holy book:	The Guru Granth Sahib
Place of worship:	Gurdwara
Holy place:	The Golden Temple in Amritsar
Beliefs about God:	Monotheistic; only 1 God		The 5 Ks		Reincarnation
Key beliefs:	Everybody is equal		Kesh	Uncut hair	When you die your soul is born into a new body.
The Guru Granth Sahib			Kara	Bangle	The life your soul has depends on the karma from your previous lives.
Contains everything the 10 human gurus taught Sikhs			Kirpan	Knife
Treated like a emperor to show how important it is: - Always higher up than the worshippers - Covered with a cloth when not being read - Kept in a rest room when not being used			Kangha	Comb	Reincarnation happens many times, until God has helped you to become so good you don't need to be reborn.
		Kacchera	Cotton shorts
The Golden Temple		Sikhi	The 10 Gurus
In Amritsar, northern India  Contains one of the oldest copies of the Guru Granth Sahib Built to show everybody is equal: 4 doors show everybody is welcome - Largest langar kitchen and hall in the world		1. Guru Nanak		Started Sikhi and taught his followers that equality was important
		2. Guru Amar Das		Made every visitor eat in the langar to show them how important equality is
Key concepts		3. Guru Angad		Wrote down Guru Nanak's hymns
		4. Guru Ram Das		Started to build Amritsar; the Sikh city
Equality		5. Guru Arjan		Put all of the previous gurus teachings into a holy book
Karma		6. Guru Hargobind		Encouraged Sikhs to learn how to defend themselves
Khalsa		7. Guru Har Rai		Worked with the government to try and protect Sikhs
Pilgrimage		8. Guru Har Krishnan		Helped ill people but became ill himself and died aged 8
Reincarnation		9. Guru Tegh Badhr		Refused to become a Muslim and died to help Hindus
		10. Guru Gobind Singh		Set up the khalsa	