Knowledge Organiser: How did the Tudors change the religion of England forever?

The Catholic Church faced criticism in the 16th century, leading to the Reformation. The Tudor monarchs left the Catholic Church and set up their own churches, changing England's official religion from Catholicism to the new Protestant faith. There is much debate about what the real motives were for this and whether England was a stronger country as a consequence of it.		Chronology: what happened on these dates?		Vocabulary: define these words
		1485	Henry VII defeated Richard III at the Battle of Bosworth.	Dynasty	A line of hereditary rulers of a country.
		1517	Martin Luther writes the 95 Theses criticising the Catholic Church.	Protestant	A group of Christians, who broke away from the Catholic Church.
Summarise your learning		1534	Henry VIII declares himself head of the Church of England.	Catholic	A group of Christians that follow the Catholic Church and the Pope.
Topic 1: How did the	Henry Tudor defeated Richard III at the Battle of Bosworth, ending	1536	The process of dissolving England's monasteries begins.	Reformation	A movement that divided the Christian Church in Europe.
Tudors come to power?  Topic 2:	the Wars of the Roses. Henry VII had to overcome many problems to secure the Tudor dynasty.	1547	Edward VI becomes king and begins to accelerate the Reformation in England to make the Church more Protestant in appearance and practice.	Heir	A person who will take the throne after the king/queen dies.
Why did people criticise the	the Church called the Reformation.  Henry VIII's 'Great Matter' was to get a male heir. Henry wanted a	1553	Mary I becomes queen and tries to reverse the Reformation in England by bringing back Catholic practices.	Annulment	Declaration that a marriage is invalid.
Catholic Church? Topic 3:		1559	Elizabeth I succeeds Mary I and sets up her own Religious Settlement which is seen as a 'middle way'.	Monastery	A building occupied by a community of monks living under religious vows.
Why did Henry VIII have so	divorce from Catherine of Aragon when she couldn't give him a son and he had to break from Rome to get one as the Pope would not grant an annulment. Henry VIII ended up having 6 wives in his			Dissolution	The closure and sale of England's monasteries.
Topic 4: How did Henry VIII	pursuit for a male heir!  Henry VIII split the English Church away from the Pope and made himself Supreme Head of the Church of England. He also dissolved the monasteries. However Henry this was motivated mainly by his 'Great Matter', money and power and was not a full move towards	c		Armada	A fleet of warships.
and Edward	Protestantism.	Who	were these people? What were these events?
VI change the church?	Edward VI extended some of the changes and the Church adopted Protestant features.  Mary I persecuted Protestants in an attempt to reverse the	Martin Luther	A German monk, who started the Protestant Reformation in Europe.	Religious Settlement	The religious and political arrangements made for England during the reign of Elizabeth I.
Topic 5: How did Mary I and Elizabeth I change religion?	Reformation and tried to restore the Catholic Church.  Elizabeth I tried to promote a 'middle way' in religion through her religious settlement. She wanted to create an inclusive Protestant church that allowed her to be in authority whilst enabling former Catholics to feel that they could follow Protestant forms of worship. She later began to persecute Catholics and by the end of her reign England was a fully Protestant country.	Mary, Queen of Scots	Elizabeth I's cousin. She was a rival to the English throne, who fled there after her nobles revolted. Elizabeth I eventually had her executed for treason.	Roman Catholic Protestant
		The Babington Plot (1586)	An unsuccessful plot to kill Elizabeth I and replace her with Mary, Queen of Scots.
Topic 6: What was the Catholic reaction?	Elizabeth faced many rebellions by Catholics who wanted Mary Queen of Scots to be queen and the Spanish Armada invaded.	The Spanish Armada (1588)	A failed invasion attempt, organised by Philip II of Spain, to restore Catholicism in England.		