Grammar:
In French ALL nouns have a gender, either masculine or feminine. They can also be singular or plural.

There is a different definite article [THE] for either:
masculine - le
feminine – la plural – les

The definite article is also contracted to l' before vowels.

Common misconceptions

In English, we miss out the definite article when giving opinions.

E.g I like bread

BUT in French, you must always use the definite article for opinions

E.g. J'aime le pain [Literally - I like the bread]
