

¿Con quién no te llevas bien? Who don't you get along with?

No me llevo bien /Me llevo mal [I don't get on (well)]	con [with]	mi (madre)	porque [because]	No me escucha [he/she doesn't listen to me]
		mi (padre)	ya que [since]	Siempre nos discutimos [we always argue]
			dado que (given that)	No me respeta [he/she doesn't respect me]
				No me entiende [he/she doesn't respect me]
				Me hace llorar [he/she makes me cry]
				No me permite salir [he/she won't allow me to go out]

Grammar

Negatives: In Spanish, the negative structure no goes before the verb.

E.g

No soy español
I am not Spanish

For any sentence with a direct object pronoun (D.O.P) no goes before D.O.P the and before the verb.

E.g.

No me escucha

No me permite salir

Phonics

LL

Makes a sound like Y

Llorar (Yorar)

Llevo (Yaybo)

