Phonics

H – silent

H is always silent in Spanish.
Look at these words and pronounce them without the H :

horrible
hotel huevos
hola
helado

Adverbial phrases to help you sound more natural :

Por supuesto - Of course Depende – It depends Normalmente - Normally

Common misconceptions

In English we miss out the definite article (THE) after opinions. But in Spanish they always keep the definite article (EL / LA/ LOS / LAS)after opinions.
e.g "Me gusta el arroz" literally means "I like the rice"
