Knowledge organiser: Change

Change can be brought about in many ways, such as peacefully or violently, through legal changes or through inspiring individuals.		Chronology: what happened on these dates?		Vocabulary: define these words.
		1883	Contagious Diseases Act suspended.	Moral outrage	Anger that other people have been mistreated
Summarise your learning			The Salt March, led by Gandhi, which was a		Withdrawing an Act of Topic 1:	People like Elizabeth Fry and Josephine Butler dedicated their lives to changing social issues that appeared deeply unfair and morally wrong. The American Civil War and the English Civil War both happened because of deep differences within nations; both had unexpected consequences.	1930	peace protest for Indian independence.	Repeal	Parliament
Can change come by stirring up moral		1955–56	The Montgomery Bus Boycott follows the arrest of Rosa Parks.	Civil war	A war between people of the same country outrage? Topic 2:		1969	Abolition of the death penalty in the UK.	Passive resistance	Non-violent opposition to authority
Is conflict the best way to bring about		1986	'AIDS: Don't Die of Ignorance' campaign.	Civil disobedience	Refusal to obey certain laws as a protest change? Topic 3: Can people	Peaceful protests – civil disobedience – were important in bringing about change in colonial India and in the civil rights movement in the USA.	1994	Nelson Mandela becomes president of South Africa.	Sit-in	Refusing to leave somewhere as a protest bring about		Who or what were these people/events?
change by peaceful protest?		Elizabeth Fry	Campaigner for better conditions in prisons, especially for women prisoners.	Boycott	When people refuse to buy or use something as a protest
Topic 4: Using the media to change how	This topic investigates how government propaganda and political and public information campaigns change opinions.	Josephine Butler	Campaigner for the repeal of the Contagious Diseases Act.	Capital punishment	Legally killing someone as punishment for a crime people think Topic 5:	Campaigns change opinions. Campaigns to abolish the death penalty and to reform abortion law both took many years to achieve change. In contrast, illegal riots brought rapid change to the Poll	Oliver Cromwell	Leader of Parliamentarians against the Royalists in the English Civil War.	Terrorism	Organised use of violence to force political change
How can we change the law?		Mohandas Gandhi	Leader of the Indian National Congress who organised peaceful protests against British control over India.	Women's suffrage	The right for women to vote in elections
Topic 6: Is terrorism ever justified?	Different groups have been described as terrorist organisations in recent history, but some are now seen differently.	Rosa Parks	Rosa Parks refused to move from her bus seat for a white person. Her arrest sparked the Montgomery Bus Boycott.	Apartheid	The South African political system that took away rights and freedoms from people who weren't white
		Nelson Mandela	Sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in violent protests against apartheid; elected president of South Africa in 1994.	ANC	The African National Congress, which fought against apartheid

© Pearson Education Ltd 2017. Copying permitted for purchasing institution only. This material is not copyright free.