

How to use your techniques...

Freeze Frame

Completely
still

Good use of space

Tells a story

Definite
and clear

Body
language and facial expression

Thought- tracking

Appropriate for character

Spoken to the audience

Quality of voice/accent

Loud,
clear voice

Order of speech
planned

effectively!

Using the slide above to help
you. . .

Draw the freeze-frame of the gang standing under the pylon the day that Terry died.
Include a thought track for each member of the group.

Role-on-the-wall

Complete a Role on the Wall for one of the characters from the play. Draw what you think the character looks like and then around the outside describe their personality and write everything you know about them.

Imagining the reactions of other characters.

- Choose a group of people who have been affected by Terry's death and write a scene showing their reactions. You could choose from Terry's close family, the gang, the Police or other students and teachers at the school.
- If you prefer, you could create this as a storyboard or cartoon strip.

The Terrible Fate of Humpty Dumpty

- Create the scene between one of the gang-members and their parents on the evening that Terry is killed. The parents are asking the gang-member where they've been and what they've been doing. First, think carefully about the character of the gang-member, what their home-life might be like and what state of mind they might be in.

One thing I have learned about BULLYING is. . .