with Out of the Box

CONCLUSIONS

Not all stories end with "and they lived happily ever after..."
Today, we will experiment with different endings.

EXERCISE ONE

- I Perform or Write a short scene entitled:
"An Unusual Day".
- 2 Start your scene, but at some point in the scene, the characters must make a choice that will affect the outcome of the story.
Show us both outcomes.

EXERCISE TWO

- I Take the story of "Cinderella" from the moment the clock strikes midnight and create THREE different endings to the story.
- 2 Perform or write your endings.

EXERCISE THREE

- I A "Cliff Hanger" is an ending that leaves the audience in suspense.
Perform or write a scene where the following sentence is included somewhere:
"It is time to go...hurry!"
End your scene with a cliff hanger.

EXERCISE FOUR

- I Perform or write a scene that begins with a character in a tricky situation.
In your scene, have your character flashback on the events that led them into their current state.

USE YOUR IMAGINATION AND HAVE FUN!
