We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

4. Our lawful basis for using this data

Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed in section 3 above are as follows:

- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
For example: Employed staff have a contract with the school/trust
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations). We need to process data to meet our responsibilities under law as set out here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/statutory-guidance-schools>
An example of this is 'safeguarding children and young people'
- Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law. Managing a school is considered a 'task in the public interest'. Further details are available here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/statutory-guidance-schools>

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- Ask for your Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose. An example of this may be certain uses of photos of you.
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest
