School Governors are people like you...

Have you got:

- An interest in our children's future?
- A desire to make a difference?
- Time and energy?
- A readiness to accept responsibility?
- Are you happy to ask questions, listen and learn?
- An ability to work in a team?

Then you could have what it takes to join the largest volunteer group in the country, working with others to get the best for our children.

What support will I get as a Governor?

- An induction course for newly appointed governors covering every main responsibility.
- Subsequent training on a wide range of subjects.
- Each Governing Body has a clerk to organise arrangements for termly meetings and to take minutes.
- The Headteacher and experienced governors on your Governing Body will provide a major source of advice.
